
ENFIELD POLICE DEPARTMENT

PRESS RELEASE

DATE: OCTOBER 3, 2011

TO: MEDIA

FROM: LT. PEDEMONTI

SUBJECT: HOMICIDE

On September 29, 2011 at 2340 hours the Enfield Police Department received multiple 911 calls reporting a disturbance at 11 Hazard Ave, Motel 6 in Enfield. Further reports that came in were a person had been stabbed. Officers arrived on scene and were able to determine that a male victim had been stabbed in the chest area. The male victim is identified as Hector Sibaja age 29 who resided in Albany, NY. Officers located a second female victim who had been stabbed. She was identified as Ginger Wood age 21 also from Albany, NY. CPR was initiated on the male victim and he was transported to Baystate Hospital where he was pronounced dead. The female victim was transported to Baystate Hospital where she was treated and later released.

Members of the Enfield Police Department Detective Division were able to develop a suspect. With the assistance of the Waterbury Police Department the suspect was located in Waterbury, Connecticut. He was arrested on unrelated charges. He was charged on two outstanding warrants for violation of probation. The accused was identified as Jeffrey Ward 12-18-77 19-2 Boxwood Court Waterbury, Ct. The accused was transported back to the Enfield Police Department where the investigation continued.

Detectives were able to obtain an arrest warrant for Jeffrey Ward on Sunday evening where the accused was arrested and charged with Murder, Assault 1st, and Reckless Endangerment 1st.

The accused is being held on total bonds of $2,150,000. and is scheduled to appear at G.A. 13 on Monday October 3, 2011.

Jeffrey Ward DOB 12-18-77